The John Adams Administrators

THE JOHN ADAMS faculty has undergone few changes in its personnel in '47-'48. Mrs. Irene Arndt, Mr. d'Orbert Faust, and Mrs. Louise Lewellen have been replaced by Mrs. David Wiseman, nee Miss Frances Shearer, Miss Mary Lou Tash, and Mr. Malvin Walker. Mrs. Wiseman was raised in Mishawaka and received her education at Indiana University and Hanover College. Miss Tash hails from Pekin, Indiana and also attended Hanover College. Mr. Malvin Walker is a native of South Bend and attended the Arthur Jordan Conservatory, Indianapolis, prior to his present position.

Class

THE JOHN ADAMS Class of '48 leaves with mingled feelings of sorrow and joy. There were a lot of things to gripe about and also some stuff to remember fondly. In reviewing Miss Roell's old Tower files we find that as sophomores we got some things done. Pat Kissinger starred in "Under the Gaslight," our football team opened the season by defeating Plymouth 25-7, and the basketball team won a 38-36 overtime thriller in the sectionals from Riley. That was the year in which "Pappy" Tom Lane drove the non-existant car in "The Happy Journey."

Back to school and again a good play comes to mind, "The Straw Hat." New coaches, Crowe, Wegner, and Davis started our football team rolling. The golfers were triumphant at the State Invitational Tournament, at Indianapolis. The team won 7th place and Paul Bumann was 3rd medalist. The other Junior golfers were John Weissert and Dick Worth. The Dance band appeared for the first time at an all school Tower Dance. The student council was kept busy penalizing violators of a smoking ban which they made. A lot of us will remember the Hi-Y annual Swingheart Sway. John Adams was host to the State Band contest in which our band participated. The sectional winner, Central, eliminated the Eagles in their first sectional game. Bill Grounds, Bill Gooley, Myra Roberts, and Nancy Gradecki starred in the Glee Club operetta "Katinka." The Adams Eve, a rollicking basketball game between our faculty and seniors, topped the events of 1947.

Our third and last year at Adams began with our mighty seniors, Millard Nichols, Don Simon, Keith Zeiders, Bill Roberts, Bill Gooley, Lynn Wright, Dave Coker, Bob Deiter, Earl Troeger, Luther Johnson, Fred Knopp, and Jack Wagner starring on the most successful football team Adams ever had. To their undying glory let it be said that they beat Central! Most of us will remember such names as Bill Gooley, Nancy King, Phyllis Nelson, Jerry Weinberg, Martha Craig, and Katherine DeLong when thinking of our Glee Club. The mystery "The Crime at Blossoms" is another success to add to our files. It starred Nancy King, Mary Troub, Virginia Erhardt, Jim Cox, Bill Reinke, and Pat Kissinger. Bud Witt and Jim Cox led the tennis team in the fall of '47. The activities of the Hi-Y were in the capable hands of Dick Brotherson, Bill Marrs, Jim Lebo, Lynn Wright and Bob Deiter. Dick Brotherson and George Swintz added their names to the golfers list. Pat Kissinger proved herself a capable Tower editor. Our class elected Don Simon as president, John Ruffner as vice-president, Paul Bumann as treasurer, and Phyllis Nelson as secretary. Bob Welber was president of the Library Club. Most of us think of Mary Troub and Ted High when remembering the Band. The main events of our past three years at Adams are mentioned in the above paragraphs, now let's just reminise. Do you remember the volley ball games, the history trips, the drama club trips, the debates, Pat Kissinger winning valedictorian honors, and Phyllis Nelson winning salutatorian, Rothermel and Wegner becoming proud papas, the Stardust Cafe and the band concerts, the Towers, the Albums, the G. A. A., the Y-teens, the Orchestra clinics, the basketball and football games, the track meets, Christmas vespers, Usher Club meetings, class room films, and many personal memories that will be remembered for a long, long, time. Its been fun.

This picture is a failure at representing the typical club scene. Brotherson doesn't look mad enough, and the rank and file shows too much interest in him.

Drama Club

THE DRAMA CLUB is not a club restricted to those who have any particular talent in the dramatic line, it is for those who have an interest in drama in any form. Any person who feels he would like to find out a little more about drama in any form is welcome.

This past year the officers of the Drama Club were Bob Waechter, president; Joanne Wine, vice-president; Barbara Clayton, secretary; and Jerry Weinberg, treasurer.

The largest annual project of the club is its Chicago trip. Each year this trip is made by the marjority of the members of the club. During this day the sights of the Loop are taken in and in the afternoon a stage production is seen. Billy Gilbert's revival of "The Chocolate Soldier" by Rudolph Friml was the production seen this year.

Since the trip to Chicago can be taken only once a year other projects must be taken up by the club. The Drama Club has a part in every "all-school-play" which this year was "The Crime At Blossoms". Members of the group help on different committees such as the wardrobe, the properties and the staging. All of these committees are necessary to make a play a success.

When not occupied by play promotions the club holds weekly meetings at which programs pertaining to dramatics are staged. Mrs. McClure put on a demonstration of stage make-up, Mr. Dake talked about the Australian drama, Mr. Krider talked at the occasion of induction of new members, and several skits were presented by members of the group. Harold Heeter and John Meyers did one, Bill Reinke and Jim Cox did a take-off on Mr. Reber's chemistry class, and Bob Welber and a group did a radio program.

During the second semester the club suspended operations when Mrs. McClure, sponsor of the club, was forced to give up all extra curricular activities on her physician's advice. The club is very grateful to Mrs. McClure for her help, instruction, and inspiration during the seven years of the club's existence and hopes that she will be able to resume leadership in September 1948. If this is impossible, newly elected officers Bob Gross, president; Nancy Carlson, secretary; Harold Heeter, treasurer; and John Meyers, vice president along with a new sponsor will lead the club into another active and productive year.

Student Council

THROUGH THE John Adams Student Council, the voice of the student body is represented in school problems and affairs. With one student representing each room, the school is informed of the current problems of the school. This year the council merged the smoking council and driving council into the Student Court. They have promoted a noon recreation period and sponsored a committee which will publish a pamphlet for incoming sophomores about life in John Adams. The Student Council led John Adams to the attaining of our goal in the "Save the Shades" drive. This year the Adams' Council participated in the city meet of Student Councils at Central High School.

By giving the students a chance to express their ideas and opinions, closer co-ordination between students and faculty can be attained. All suggestions were constructively discussed at length in the meetings held every Thursday morning, with Mr. Rothermel serving as faculty advisor.

Debate Club

THE DEBATE TEAM was directed this year by Mr. Donald Dake until his transfer in January. Mr. Goldsberry took over the debaters for the rest of the season. This year, the debate team was led by Mary Troub serving as president and Bob Welber as librarian. Members were Arnold Gilman, J. Cox, D. Litherland, L. Worley, B. Gross, J. Hoose, R. James, and B. Reinke.

The debate question was, Resolved: That the Federal Government Should Require Arbitration of Labor Disputes in all Basic American Industries.

The John Adams Debate team was ranked third in the St. Joseph Valley League. This league ranked Adams, LaPorte, Central, Riley, and Mishawaka on the basis of their victories in four classifications. From victories in Extemporaneous Speaking, Round Table Discussions, After Dinner Speeches, and Regular Debate Season, Central was ranked first with LaPorte and Adams winning second and third honors.

THE JOHN ADAMS Glee Club this year had a membership of 103. Under the capable leadership of Mrs. Lawrence T. Pate, the Glee Club has seen an active and enjoyable year.

Outstanding concerts on the 1947-48 program were the North Central Chorus in the fall, under the direction of Mr. Russel V. Morhan, the Thanksgiving Recital in the Little Theatre, and the traditional Christmas Vesper Service on Sunday, December 14. At this program the audience of three-thousand were inspired by the candlelight processional and Christmas music.

One of the highlights of the second semester was the Easter Service given in cooperation with the Hi-Y. There was a feeling of reverence during the formation of the lighted cross and singing of the sacred numbers by the soloists, Triple Trio, and Glee Club. The spring program combined sacred and light music and was warmly received by the audience. The closing number featured a square dance. On May 13, the Glee Club sang with the city's other junior and senior high schools' Glee Clubs in a mass chorus in the auditorium. Mr. George Horverton of Northwestern University, one of the most outstanding directors of the nation, gave them a memorable day. The year closed with favorite songs for Baccealaureate and Commencement.

The Glee Club members were unable to accept all the invitations for outside programs this year. They enjoyed singing for the combined Thanksgiving service of the down-town churches, the Rotary Christmas party at the Oliver, and several church programs.

The Glee Club was fortunate in having three accompanists of unusual ability in Laurette Canter, Martha Craig, and Kathrine DeLong.

The members of the organization look back with pride on a full and active year.

Ushers

THE USHERS CLUB sponsored by Mr. Weir, is an increasingly popular club. By rendering a service to the school and the city, the squad gains personal benefits. On duty for all school activities, the ushers also assist at tournaments, musical programs, and other special programs and meetings.

Jim Wilson served as head usher this year. Captain ushers were Bill Lake, Tom Doyan, LaMar May, and Tom Smithberger. The latter two served as Recording Secretary and Activities Secretary, respectively.

Hall Guards

THE HALL GUARDS were organized by Mr. Crowe for the maintenance of order in the halls during classes. From vantage points located in various places throughout the school, it is the duty of this group to see that no one is in the halls without an admit or hall pass. The guards are chosen from the study halls, only those with a B or better average being permitted on duty. Captain hall guards were, P. Smeltzer, C. Parker, J. Keller, L. Johnson, H. Ziker, and E. Connon.

Hi-Y

THE JOHN ADAMS Hi-Y Club, with Mr. Floyd Dickey continuing as faculty advisor, completed another successful year. Working with Dick Brotherson as president; Ben Jurcik, vice president; Lynn Wright, treasurer; Bill Marrs, secretary; J. Lebo, chaplain; and B. Deiter, sergeant at arms, the club retained its capacity membership.

In the Hi-Y's program of activities, their annual "Swingheart Sway" semi-formal dance took the social spotlight. For several years Adams has participated in this event sponsored by the assembly of Hi-Y's from South Bend and Mishawaka. In balance with the social activities, the Hi-Y sponsored the Honor Roll, decorated the Christmas tree, presented the Easter assembly, and aided in the successful development of various other service functions.

Brotherson and Wagner set a little type for the honor roll.

Sam Jennings and Bussert decorate the Christmas Tree.

Jim Mould does some stage setting.

Y-Teens

THE Y-TEENS, under the direction of Miss Minniear, is a girls' club of growing interest. The purpose of the club is to build a fellowship of girls devoted to the task of realizing no discrimination in religions or races and to teach girls how to live in a democracy. The officers for this year were: Betty Ann Gudates, president; Phyllis Taylor, vice president; Nancy Ellsworth, secretary; Joan Borden, treasurer; Marian Szlanfucht, sergeant-at-arms; Pat Sells, Publicity.

The fifty-eight members, thirty of which were active, held their meetings every Wednesday during lunch hour. In their meetings they planned their activities and projects. The Y-Teens sponsored the sale of Christmas Seals and presented the "Turnabout Twirl", a sport dance at the Y.W.C.A. in the spring.

THE JOHN ADAMS Band, under the direction of Mr. Cecil R. Deardorff and his assistant, Mr. Walker, has just completed a very busy year.

In the fall semester, the band played for many football and basketball games, using several new and intricate maneuvers. One of the most interesting was the formation done with the Elkhart band in which a map of Indana was formed to the tune of "Indiana."

During the second semester, the band had two exchange concerts with Michigan City and Riley. This was the first time Adams has ever attempted such visits. Both met with a great deal of success. Also during the spring semester were the solo and ensemble contests, state band contest, and the annual spring concert.

The Swing Band also had a very full and profitable season. It played after several basketball games and at the "Stardust" and "Gold Dust" Cafes. This marks the second year in the very successful life of the Swing Band. This group was organized for the purpose of affording instruction, pleasure, and experience for those interested in learning to play swing music. Since then, it has proven itself to be a permanent organization available for school dances here at Adams.

Mr. Walker, a new addition to the faculty last fall, directed the orchestra through another very good season. After a great deal of diligent practice, this organization played for a Parent Teachers Association meeting. Another important function of the orchestra was the all-city band and orchestra music festival held early this spring. At that time all of the school musicians of the city participated in this program which was typical of the growth of instrumental music in our city.

THE LIBRARY CLUB, sponsored by Mrs. Gosma has continued to be an important service club at Adams. Working with a membership of thirty-nine, the club completely manages the efficient running of our library. Each member is expected to devote three hours per week toward his duties in the library.

Although a service club, the Library club has its social aspects. The mid-year initiation planned by Janet Kurtz, program chairman, will long be remembered by the members. Both interesting and educational were the visits of the club to the libraries of Central and Mishawaka High Schools.

The Library Club officers for this year were Bob Welber, president; Phyllis Schrager, vice president; Shirley Gorsuch, secretary; and Janet Kurtz, program chairman. Fifteen members received the Silver Pin award for three semesters of membership. Bob Welber and Delores Grenert were awarded Gold Pins for six semesters of three-hour-a-week work.

G. A. A.

THE G.A.A., Girls' Athletic Association, has continued to be popular with sportsminded girls at Adams. Holding its meetings at noon, the club sponsors supervised sports suitable for girls. In fall and spring the girls enjoyed outdoor sports in the form of softball, hockey, and speedball. When the weather forced them inside they participated in volley ball and basketball tournaments, badminton, tumbling, ping-pong, shuffleboard, and dancing, both square and social. Awards are given the girls on the basis of points in attendance and participation. Sponsored by Miss Bauer and Miss Tash, the officers for this year were; Ruth Keb, president; Mary Ann Evanoff, vice president; Marilyn Becker, secretary; Pat Rohrbaugh, sergeant-at-arms.

Another important phase in the G.A.A.'s activities was their management of the concessions during the football and basketball seasons. Besides the opportunity of gaining free admittance to the games, the girls received valuable training in meeting the public.

AS A CLUB of purely service function, the Screen Club is of growing importance. Making possible the system of visual education, this group of boys has assumed the responsibility of running the movies for the school. Herbert Singleton was selected president by Mr. Rothermel, sponsor. His duties are to assign the running of the machines to the boys during their study halls or free periods. He also teaches them the fundamentals of the projector. The duties of the club members are to set up the equipment, run the movie at the desired time, and return the machine and films in order. John Horvath has served during the second semester as head of the organization.

THE JUNIOR RED CROSS, a newly founded club at Adams, is also a service club. It is a junior branch of the local Red Cross. Serving on the Executive Council were Nancy Ellsworth and Rosemary Talbot (12 A's), Joan Partritz and Betty Granat (12 B's), and John Meyers (10 A). Miss Law was the faculty advisor.

The Junior Red Cross sponsored the Freedom Train Drive at John Adams. They collected the food and packed it in boxes to be sent to the train. In April, they packed fifty gift boxes to be sent to foreign countries.

At Christmas time, the girls of the Junior Red Cross volunteered to help at Memorial Hospital. Their services were needed to deliver the great amount of cards, letters, gifts, and flowers of the Christmas season to the patients. Some of the girls enjoyed the work so much that they have continued helping at the hospital.

Tower

THE JOHN ADAMS Tower, weekly school paper published by the students for the students, needs little introduction. Every student is conscious of the paper, yet the staff goes about its duties quietly and efficiently. Pat Kissinger served as editor-in-chief this year assisted by a very capable group of workers. The editorial staff consisted of, J. Wine and B. Stark, features; J. Highberger and J. Horvath, sports; W. Reinke, music; M. Rose, exchange; B. Granat, clubs; and M. Higgins, photographer. Managing the business staff were B. Smith, advertising; J. Liebig, business manager; H. Getzinger, exchange manager; and L. Miller, circulation manager.

Monogram Club

THE MONOGRAM CLUB was organized this year as an extra-curricular activity for our Letter Men. The boys organized the club, wrote a constitution, and elected Mr. Reber as faculty advisor. The officers are, Don Lambert, president; John Weissert, vice president; Dick Booth, sergeant-at-arms; Paul Bumann, secretary; and Lynn Wright, treasurer.

Composed of letter winners from active boys' sports the club is striving for clean sports free from discrimination.

Album

BY THIS time the purpose of the Album staff must be evident. In the back room of 101, a group of students has worked at least one hour a day for the school year to publish a book of memoirs for the student body. Sponsored by Mr. McNamara, faculty advisor and chief photographer, the staff feels it has been successful. Representing the Senior classes were Sydelle Baskind, Jane Buchanan, Laura Beth Miller, and Bill Reinke. Juniors on the staff were Don Crawford, Rosemary Kelly, Susie Schwier, Janet Shulmier, and Bud Sunderlin. Marian Hulbert was the sophomore assistant.

Managing the business aspect of the publishing of a year book was Mr. Nelson, with Jeanette Jackson as student manager. The staff of twenty-three solicited parents of students and past patrons of the Album for donations. This Group turns in an average of $500 each year toward the financing of the Album.

AT THE beginning of the 1947 football season the Adams team was quickly whipped into shape by Coaches Crowe, Davis, and Wegner. The survivors of the wreck of '46 gave promise of developing into a powerful team. Captain-elect Don Simon who had been a good center in 46 became an even better ball player and an effective leader. Lynn Wright and Zeider dug in at the guard positions and determined to submarine anyone that threatened there. Dave Coker, Bill Cooley, and Bob Dieter took over at tackle, and Millard Nichols, Jack Kelly, and Jim Nevins manned the ends. In the backfield Joe Howell at left half became the passing specialist, Barritt, at right the runner, Bill Roberts the line bucking full back, and Dick Booth the blocking specialist. These with their substitutes managed to win five games, tie one, and lose three for Adams best season to date.

The season opened with a 14-0 victory over the Lions of South Bend Catholic. Late in the first quarter Howell passed to Barritt for the first touchdown. Cooley made the conversion for the extra point and the game settled down into a punters' duel. In the third quarter Keith Zeiders recovered a fumble on the Lions twenty-five yard line which set up the second Eagle score. Howell passed to Kelly on the three, and Booth plunged over. Cooley again split the cross bars to finish the scoring for the evening.

Central was the second item on the schedule. The Bears expected, quite logically, to boot the lowly Eagles around for a seventh consecutive time as they prepared for more dangerous game. The game started conventionally with the Bears amassing thirteen points early. At the beginning of the second quarter Simon recovered Baumgartner's fumble and on the next play, Howell, having been frustrated in the matter of finding a pass receiver, carried the ball all the way for a touchdown. After the half the Eagles, now "hungry" as Crowe would put it, drove the Bears back to their own goal line with vicious defensive ball. Redding was smeared by Coker behind his iwn goal for a safety and two points. Central kicked from their thirty, Adams drove back to the twenty-one, and Roberts on two successive plays, a pass from Howell and a line smash, garnered another touchdown. Adams final score came about in the last quarter when Joe Howell picked off a Central pass and ran it back forty-three yards to the three. Barritt scored standing up and the Eagles led 20-13. Central picked up a touchdown in the closing seconds but missed the conversion and the Eagles racked up their first victory over the Bears.

The Eagles went down to Goshen on September 19 in search of a third scalp to add to their already well decorated banner. In the first quarter Joe Howell went around end for a score, in the third Roberts picked up another through the middle, and in the last stanza Barritt picked up a third. Gooley kicked his first two conversion points but missed the third. The Eagles not only outscored the Goshen gang but piled up overwhelming statistics in all departments of play. The Eagles made 16 first downs while the Reds were getting 3.

tore into them confident that Wildcat was edible. It wasn't to be however. Even though Nichols opened the scoring by running a free ball back fifty-five yards for a touchdown, it soon became apparent that one Mr. Gershoffer was going to dominate the ball game. In nineteen pitches he threw twelve perfect strikes at his receivers. The Adams secondary hadn't known that the human arm could get accuracy at long punting range and were a little inclined to ignore receivers when they were clearly out of range. They hadn't figured on Seige-Gun Gershoffer.

That evening the Eagles saw what might have been a beautiful memory become a 20-6 victory for Riley.

A week later Adams got back into stride and took Fort Wayne's South Side into camp by the score of 14-12. Fort Wayne led 12-0 at the half but after the intermission a pass, by Howell to Nevins, produced one touchdown and a scamper by Joe Howell produced another. Gooley kicked the first conversion point and Howell ran for the other. The result of all this was Adams 14, Fort Wayne 12. Adams made 19 first downs while South Side was racking up four.

Plymouth fell next thirteen to seven on October tenth and the way was open for the cocky Eagles to knock over the Cavemen. Adams scored in the first quarter on Booth's quarterback sneak and Cooley converted. Mishawaka thereupon started to roll and Miller, Squadroni, and Feathers spearheaded the Mishawaka power to a 19-7 victory. LaPorte came next and shut the Eagles out while scoring twenty-six points. All of the Slicer scoring occured in the first half which attests the fact that it was no run away.

The season closed with an upset of the Michigan City club. The game ended six to six but that, in view of the build up, was some kind of an upset. After lickings at the hands of Mishawaka and LaPorte, the master minds of the press rooms were inclined to discount the Adams power. The Michigan city club was being touted as conference contenders when it tangled with the Eagles. Peo of Michigan City plunged for one score in the second quarter of the ball game and Red Roberts picked up one for the Eagles in the fourth. Otherwise the game was a stand off and a punters' duel. Adams made seven first down contracts to Michigan City's five.

At the annual football banquet held at the Zion Evangelical Church the Gilbert Award for Most Valuable Back was given to Bill Roberts, the Reco Award for Most Valuable Lineman went to Dave Coker, and the Kiwanis Award for scholarship and sportsmanship was made to Lynn Wright. Toastmaster Krider and principal speaker Joe Boland did well in lauding a team which established the best record yet made by an Eagle grid squad.

B-Team Football

THE B team, otherwise known as the Eaglets, won the conference B team title under the coaching of Corby Davis. The team turned the trick by gaining victories over Goshen, Washington, Mishawaka, and Central. They fought out ties with Riley, Elkhart, and La Porte. No one managed to beat them.

Among the boys whose effectiveness this season promises much for the '48 varsity season are Bill Daugherty, halfback; "Dunk" Downer, tackle; Dick DeMas, center; Carroll Dickinson, guard; Dick Boleski, end; Dick Carlson, back; Bob Parker, end; and Joe Plott, back.

The season's record for the B's follows:

Adams	25	Goshen	12
Adams	6	Washington	0
Adams	19	Mishawaka	6
Adams	13	Central	7
Adams	7	Riley	7
Adams	6	Elkhart	6
Adams	19	LaPorte	19

Golf

THE 1948 John Adam's Golf Team enjoyed a very successful season. Coach Kermit Thompson's golfers placed second in the conference for the third consecutive year. Captain Paul Bumann led the Adams Golf Team which included John Weissert, Dick Worth, Bob Manby, George Swintz, and Dick Brotherson. The team won five matches while losing only one to Mishawaka. The most sparkling performance of the season was that of Paul Bumann when he won the medalist trophy at the LaPorte Invitational Golf Tournament. The Golf Team placed seventh in the 1947 State Golf Tournament.

Tennis

THE TENNIS team had a good season. It won 5 out of the 8 matches. The only teams to clip them were Central, Elkhart, and Michigan City. Jim Cox, first man, was the mainstay of the team with a record of 6 wins and 2 losses in his singles matches. Bud Witt, the second man, won 5 and lost 3 of his contests, while Dick Bennett, third man, won 5 and lost 2 singles matches. The doubles teams were stronger than the singles and swept most of their matches. The doubles teams were composed of Jim Cox and Bud Witt, first team; and Dick Bennett and Marlin Miller, second team. The members of both doubles teams received monograms and Bud Witt was elected Captain. Robert Kaplan served as manager.

Track

ADAMS rejoices in the spring of '48 in a city championship track team. In former years the Eagles have been considered a threat to cop the crown, but this year for the first time the boys put it over. The meet was held in the Notre Dame gym on April 10 and closed with the following point standings recorded; Adams 64⅔, Washington 50⅓, Central 46⅔, Riley 33⅔.

Because of the construction of a new football stadium at School Field, the South Bend schools had no track available to them this year. This unhappy situation interferred with training no little and curtailed very sharply the number of meets held. Three dual meets, all away, were staged against conference rivals and resulted in the following scores; Mishawaka 72½, Adams 36½; Michigan City 54⅔, Adams 54⅓; Elkhart 70, Adams 39. A 6th was taken in the Goshen Relays; 6th in the Conference Trials; 14th in the Conference.

The Album's photographers buzzed over to Michigan City to make the pictures shown on these pages. Between the buckets full of cinders thrown at the cameras by the cold and gusty wind, an Eagles defeat was recorded. After getting ahead and apparently icing another victory the boys dropped both relay races to be nosed out by a puny one-third point.

Start of the mile.

Jurcik wins the 880.

May takes a close second.

Daugherty makes it.

Track

Among the boys who have been picking up firsts with gratifying regularity for the club are Ben Jurcik in the quarter mile, Luther Johnson in the high and low hurdles, Bob Manby in the dashes, Ronnie Minzey in the broad jump, Loren Beebe in the pole vault, and Bill Daugherty in the high jump. Several of these people are expected to do well enough in the sectionals at Mishawaka on May 14 to qualify for the state meet.

Adams' half mile relay team, Mitchell, Minzey, Carlson, and Jurcik, won a first for themselves at the Goshen Relays. The membership of this team has been changed from time to time to include Gibson and Manby.

The '49 edition of the Eagle thinlies bids fair to be good. Although Luther Johnson, Ronald Minzey, Bill Mitchell, Loren Beebe, Fred Knopp, Joe Howell, and Bill Gooley are graduating; Mr. Krider places great hopes in Jurcik, Gibson, Dickinson, Carlson, Zenzinger, Daugherty, Manby, Million, Ohlheiser, Smithberger, Weatherly, and Wright.

The triangular meet with Woodrow Wilson and Washington Clay on May 11 was rained out and could not be postponed because the county school closed the day of the flood.

Howell wins the shot put.

Knopp vaults.

Manby takes the 100.

Johnson leads at the turn in the low hurdles.

Manby wins the 220.

Cross Country

THE JOHN ADAMS Cross Country team under the coaching of Ralph Powell won only one out of their first three meets. They won their first meet at Goshen when Dick Foster came in first for the Eagles. After winning the first one they lost to LaPorte and powerful Mishawaka. The Harriers promptly won their next five meets. Included among the victims were South Bend teams Washington, Central, and Riley in that order.

The Eagles were led by Mac Bussert, a junior, who was the most outstanding runner for them. Out of the eight meets Bussert placed first for Adams in all but one. The boys were able to garner five wins in eight meets for a third place berth in the conference. The eagles finished behind Mishawaka. The other runners finishing behind Bussert were Dick Foster, Lamar May, Phillip Layman and John Keller in that order.

In the District Sectionals which were run at the Eberhart Golf Course, Adams placed third out of eleven competing teams. The harriers finished behind Mishawaka and Laporte who took first and second place respectively. In this meet Bussert finished twelfth, Foster nineteenth, Layman twenty-second, and Keller twenty-ninth. Out of these first five boys two will be back next year.

Basketball

WHEN fall basketball practice opened early in October Coach Ralph Powell was greeted by four returning lettermen and an aggregate of Bee team veterans. At the finish of the season, the red and blue possessed a 9-9 record in season's play, 5 victories in 9 conference games, and an overall mark of 13-11, including tournament play.

At sectional time, the Eagles drew an unexpected easy schedule. After disposing of Wilson, Washington, and Lakeville, Adams met Central, the favorite, and was eliminated. It may be added that Central was defeated by Peru, who in turn lost to Lafayette Jefferson, the state champions.

The campaign opened with a 37-31 conquest of Washington Clay. Non-conference games were then dropped to Mishawaka and Gary Wallace, but the conference campaign opened with a 42-39 victory over Goshen. Riley fell to the Eagles 37-34, when Joe Howell scored from under the basket to clinch the win in the closing seconds. LaPorte and Central, who placed one-two in the conference overcame the Eagles in the next two engagements. Journeying to East Chicago for the Holiday Tourney, Adams lost to the eventual champs, Roosevelt, and then tripped Whiting 45-29 in a consolation affair.

Adams began the New Year on the right foot by avenging the Roosevelt defeat 47-43. The Mishawaka affair marked the return of Harold Ziker, who had missed the last nine games, to the line-up, but the Cavemen won 50-40. An exciting 48-44 victory over Michigan City resulted as John Keller hit 18 points. Keller hit a jumping push shot from the side in the closing seconds to salvage a 38-37 win from Washington. A victory over North Side and a loss to Washington followed.

In another thrilling game, Joe Howell scored a last second field goal for a 45-44 win from Riley. The season closed with a victory and two setbacks. Don Truex flipped in 24 points in the finale against Elkhart. He was the season's leading scorer with 273 points, while Keller and Ziker followed with 176 and 173. In the all time history of the school, Zike certainly must be classed as one of its best stars. He was very colorful and although hot-headed at times, his uncanny shots scored many an Eagle point.

Another big gun for the starting five was John Keller. His last minute clutch shots resulted in the victories over Goshen, East Chicago, Michigan City, and Washington. The other John on the team, Weissert, was also a stellar performer. His grim determination inspired many an Eagle victory. Several times he scored more than ten points in a contest. Don Lambert, who was a monogram man from '47 was bothered by illness, but still his height proved a great advantage.

Then, of course, there were the highly publicized Truex twins, who still have a year of eligibility remaining. Don number 99, and Dick number 89, confused the scorers as well as their opponents. Dick was plagued by illness, but still counted 130 points. Joe Howell, who proved to be Riley's nemesis, was outstanding on defense throughout the year, particularly in guarding Washington's Coralczk. Joe, too is a junior. Don Simon, a senior, proved a valuable asset to the team, while Bill Cox and Jim Nevens, who earned monograms, by fine relief work, will return next year. Carlisle Parker and Jim McClusky were the additional squad members.

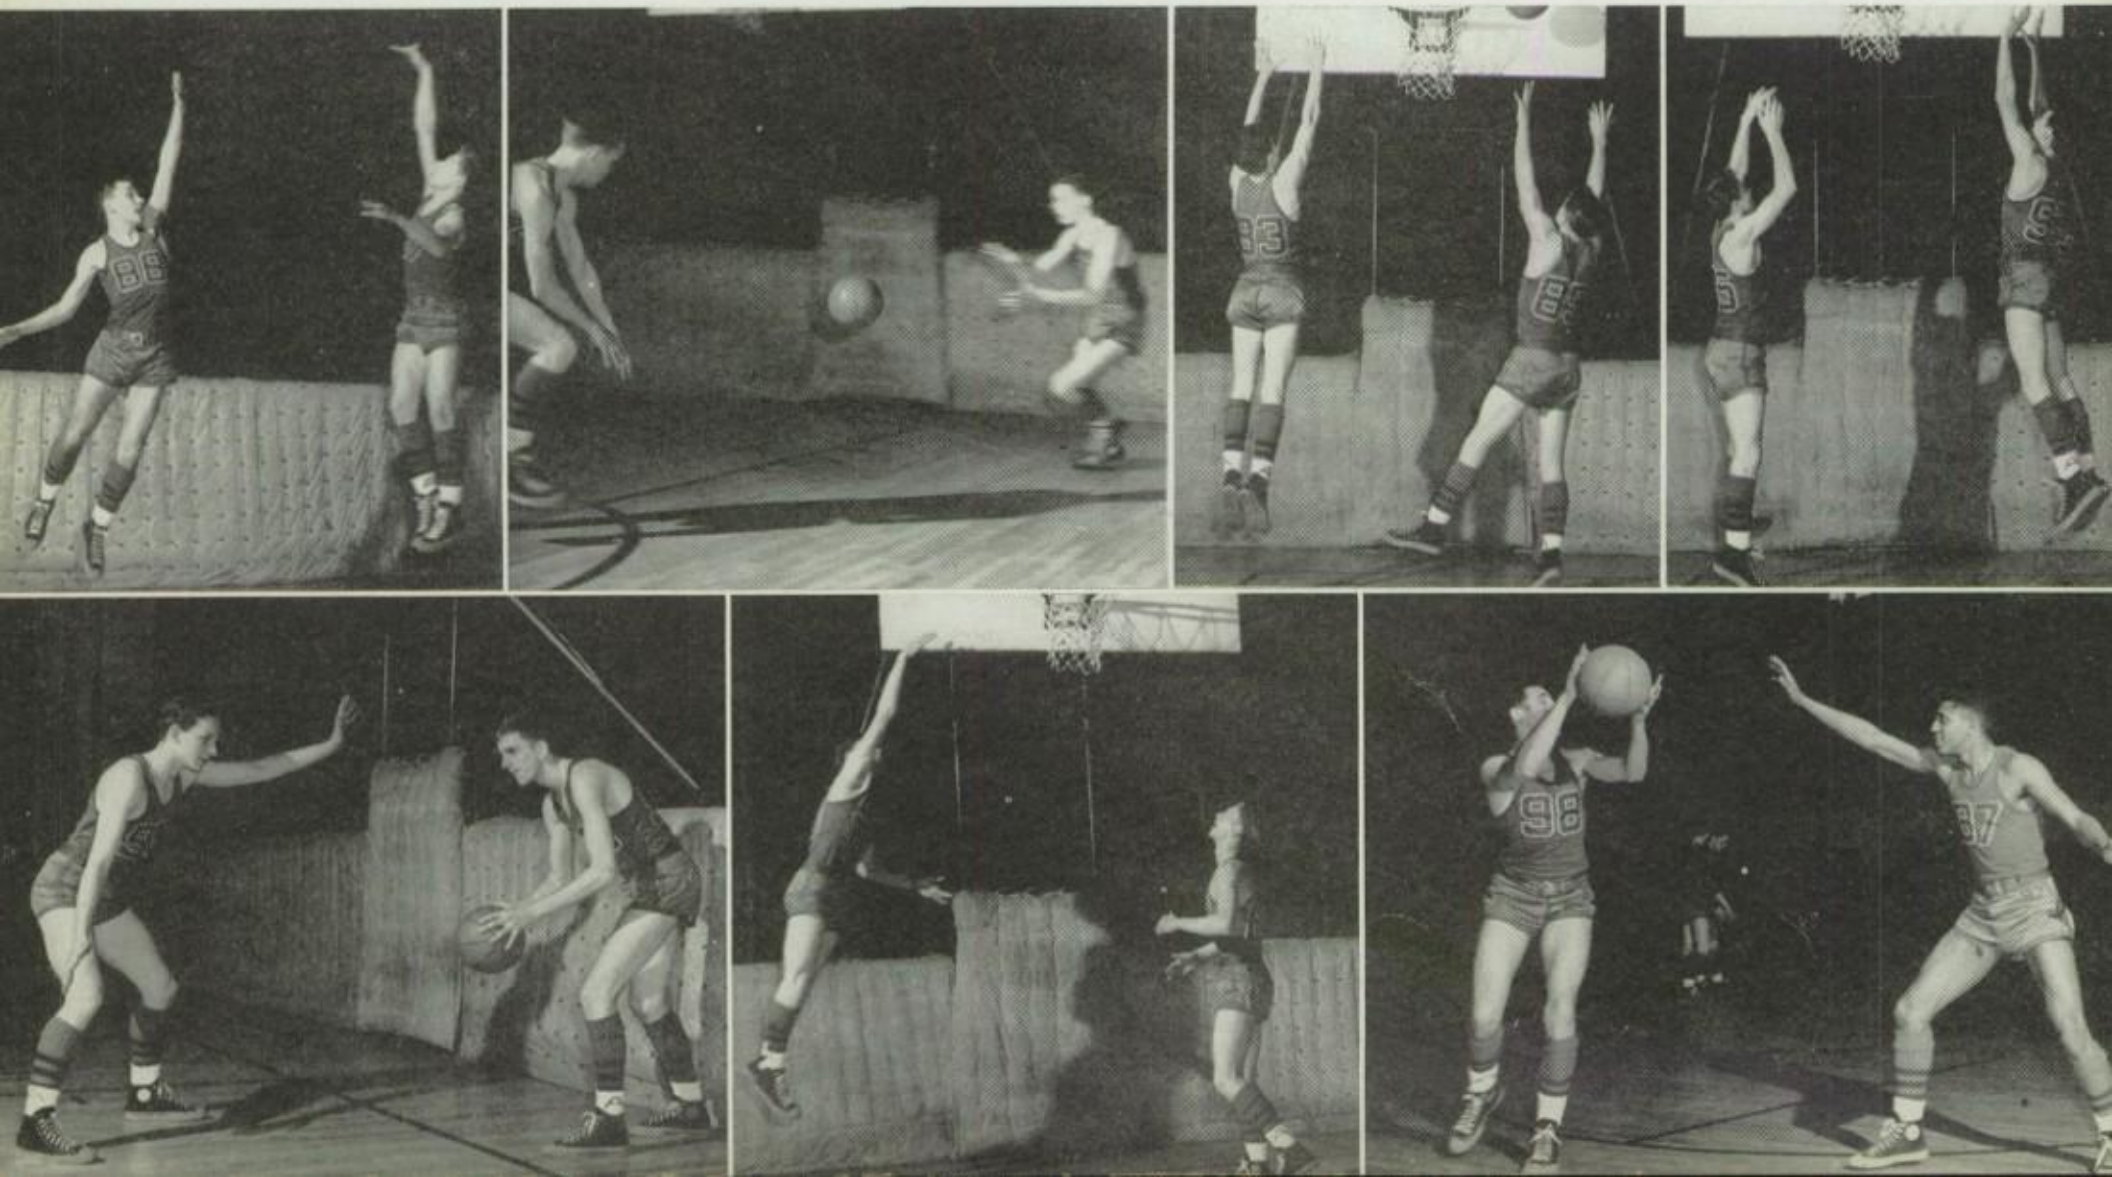
TOP ROW: Weissert and Keller, Cox and Parker, McClusky and Nevins, Tip it again. BOTTOM ROW: Simon and Lambert, Truex and Truex, Ziker and Howell.



B-Team Basketball

MUCH will be expected of this year's "B" team. The junior varsity notched eight wins in twenty outings. Three of the twelve losses were by three points. The team lined up with Dick Bennett, Marlin Miller, Mel Edgerton, Hank Hukill, and Dick Moore, who alternated with Dave Gibson at one guard post. Hukill led the scorers with 143 points, Bennett had 118, Edgerton 76, Miller 73, Moore 45, and Gibson 27; Webb, Barnowski, Carlson, Calloway, Vannett, and Million also scored.

An additional note of praise should be given to the managers. Joe Plott and Phil Smeltzer were the junior managers, while Elliot Weinberg and Carl Blechschmidt, whom Coach Powell described as the "best sophomore managers he had ever had", were the first year men.

Baseball

ROLLO NEFF started the 1948 baseball season with seven returning lettermen. He promptly rounded the boys into shape for the first game against Riley. The Eagles lost this one 4-3. Our boys then dropped a heart breaker to Central. The Bears scored six runs in the bottom of the seventh to win 8-7. Next came powerful Washington who won very handily by the humiliating score of 13-1.

Central offered the first conference resistance. This one was not decided until the last of the tenth when the Eagles won 3-2. In the last of the tenth Dick Truex laid down a beautiful bunt which scored John Keller from 3rd base and enabled Adams to win the game.

Features

All School Play

Mary Troub, Nancy King, David Gibson.

"THE CRIME At Blossoms", a mystery, was the all school play presented October 21. The action of the play took place in the Merryman's Elizabethan cottage in England. Valerie Merryman decided to open their house up for tourists to visit since a well publicized murder had taken place there. Christopher Merryman protested against her idea, but it was carried through anyway. A very funny combination of people came as visitors to the Merryman home. In the last few speeches of the play a very late visitor, Bill Reinke, confessed the murder, and destroyed the whole structure of false interpretation which had been built up. Dave Gibson and Nancy King handled the leading parts very well. Mary Troub played an excellent supporting role. The play, which attempted to demonstrate the evil effect of sensational publicity on the character of the recipient, was not too well received. The audience refused to get interested in the psychological angle of the piece and found the melodrama flat.

"Stardust Cafe"

A GROUP of American Culture students planned and produced the Stardust Cafe. It was presented on Friday night March 5. The pictures follow:

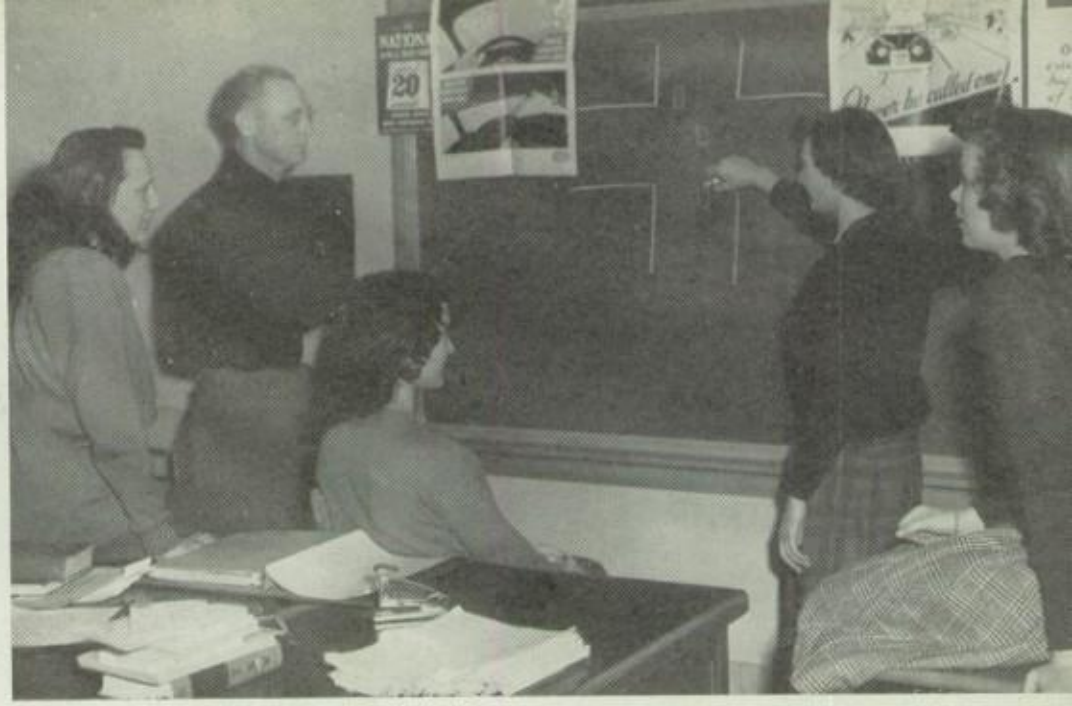
Driver Training

A NEW project of seemingly growing interest at Adams has been the driving instruction class given by Mr. Powell. A much publicized venture, the course has proved to be both enjoyable and instructive. Designed for the purpose of making better drivers of the younger generation, this experimental course has proven itself to be acceptable to the students of John Adams. The course includes classroom studies of the principles and fundamentals which constitute safe and courteous driving and actual experience behind the wheel. The 1947 Studebaker Champion donated to the school by the Scherman-Schaus-Freeman Company made possible such a revolutionary course at Adams.



Mary Lou Evanoff, Mr. Powell, Joan Erhardt, Jane Clark, and Pat Smith talk about intersection technique.

"That stuff", says the Coach, "is stuff that you as women will never appreciate. Let's just shut the lid and hope!"

Dear Guys!

You have buzzed through eighty-three pages of Album with, we hope, some pleasure. Now buzz a little further and meet the people who pay for a lot of it. If it weren't for them John Adams could afford no such year book as this one. Anything nice you can do for them will be none to good. They have done business with us; let's these Album patrons of ours contribute a lot of money to make the deficit between what this book costs and what it sells for small enough that the John Adams Board of Control can carry it. They get no books, they get no pictures, but they keep on boosting us along. Make their cooperation worth while by being as good friends to them as they are friends of John Adams.
